Shindler Calls U. S. Messiah of Nations

(Continued From Page 1) as some members and their wives and part of the public perhaps regarded them. The services came into being, said Major Shindler, as the result of a sincere and studiously thought out idealistic business idea sponsored by Roger W. Babson, internationally known financial statistician, or statistical financier, in 1900. First, Major Shindler explained, Rotary was organized, its name signifying extension from the hub, or heart, of the spokes, or arteries, carrying its ideals and principals to all parts of the world. Then came the Lions, so named after the appellation of Christ as the "Lion of Judaea."

One Should Own at Least One Gay Chiffon-Print Gown

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY

To be ever so chic this summer, one must own at least one fluffy, printed chiffon frock, made with a view to emphasizing the soft silhouette. Fashionables everywhere are yielding to the magic of the teeny weensy figured chiffons. They are truly feminine in their charm, and when they are flounced and bloused and shirred like the one in the picture, with a touch of snowy georgette accentuating the minuscule jabot treatment, they are simply enchanting.

side, thus giving hint of a one-sided overskirt drape. This is an idea worth remembering if you are thinking of making up some pretty soft fabric into a midsummer frock. Vivid little flowers, say bright red or yellow on a black background, are the last word for printed crepes, chiffons and silks. Do not forget this fact, if you are choosing material for a new gown. These gay flowers stand out against their ebony background with startling color effect, and they make up wonderfully effective—quite the most swagger-thing on the mode's newest summer dress fabric program.

Stunning ensembles of these tiny flowered silks feature sleeveless frocks with either a short jacket, a full-length coat of plain navy or black to match the background, these same being lined with the gay flower-covered silk of the dress. To complete the picture, wear with this animated flowery ensemble, a hat of tremendous brim, simply bonneted with velvet ribbon. (Copyright 1927, by Western Newspaper Union)

Merchants Wallop Standard Oilers; Will Play Japs

The Torrance Merchants Baseball team, champions of the Bay District League, walloped Standard Oil 4 to 1 at C. C. M. O. field last Sunday. Next Sunday, also at C. C. M. O. field, the Merchants will try conclusions with the Nippon Japanese outfit of Los Angeles, champion Japanese line of Southern California. Advance reports say that the little brown men are able to put up a sizzling game of baseball. While the Nipponese and the Merchants are at C. C. M. O. field, the C. C. M. O. team will journey to Catalina for a game with the Wrigley nine. C. C. M. O. lost a hard fought 14-inning game by a score of 2 to 3, to Olinda last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Kendrick of 1720 Arlington avenue have returned from a pleasant visit with friends and relatives at Pueblo and Denver, Colo. The Kendrick family were all at the home of the youngest sisters, Mrs. Will Prosser, and for the first time in twenty-five years all the children were together. Mrs. Nellie Healy and friends of Los Angeles were entertained Sunday by Mrs. Ednah Houck of Torrance-boulevard.

O. E. S. Celebrates Sixth Anniversary With Great Eclat

Torrance Chapter, O. E. S., celebrated the sixth anniversary of its institution with a dinner for the members last Thursday night. The colors of the order were carried out in flowers and candles that formed the centerpiece and in nat-baskets. Stars with colored points shaded the ceiling lights. The center of attraction was a beautiful birthday cake, the work of the Torrance Bakery with its six candles typifying the years that the chapter has lived, and decorated to represent the floor of a chapter room with every officer in place, with the appropriate coloring for each office and everything ready for the opening of the chapter.

The dinner was a delicious one of four courses. Mrs. Joseph F. Stone and her committee deserve credit for it. The decorations were the work of Mrs. W. M. Brooks and Mrs. L. B. Kelsey. There was no program given at the dinner except a short talk by District Deputy Grand Matron Sullivan, Worthy Matron Lola Mae Tomkins, Worthy Patron John Glenn Wilson, Past Matrons Clara Stanger, Ella J. Mueller, Olga Watson, Jean Guyan, Persia Cramer, 2b, and Past Patrons Charles Mueller, W. H. Stanger, Roy Winters, and P. G. Briney. Past Patron F. L. Parks is absent in the east.

Beautiful corsage bouquets were presented to the Past Matrons and boutonnières to the Past Patrons and also to the guests of honor Mr. and District Deputy Grand Matron Sullivan. At the close of the chapter Sister Virginia Watson gave a piano number "Amour Coquette." John Young gave a "Mexican Serenade" on the piano; Miss Joanna Neelands and Miss Thelma Price gave a Topsy and Eva sketch, and Miss Rose Guyan sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Roses of Picardy."

Mrs. Roy Rountree is acting chief operator at the telephone exchange during Miss Greenlund's absence. Miss Greenlund with her sister Ruth of Lomita and the Steffenson family of Riverside left Sunday on a week's camping trip in the northern part of the state.

Lomita Court Holds Big Celebration for Second Anniversary

The second anniversary celebration of Lomita Court of the Amaranth, held Tuesday evening, was attended by about 125 persons. A brief business session was followed by an excellent program that included violin solos and a duet by Adeline McCartney of Long Beach and Julia Malloy of Wilmington; vocal solos and dances, by Mrs. B. A. Beckham and piano solo and reading by Mrs. John Uhlman.

The hall and supper tables were decorated with beautiful cut flowers and ferns. Chicken salad, wafers, ice cream, cake and coffee were served the close of a delightful evening. Out of town guests included David B. Livingston, Deputy Supreme Royal Patron, and Mrs. Livingston of Long Beach; Della Pinderton, Assistant Grand Lecturer, of El Segundo; Mrs. Yates, Grand Charity of Los Angeles; and Royal Matrons, Patrons and Members from Courts of Los Angeles, Redondo Beach; Glendale, Eagle Rock, Santa Monica, Long Beach and Wilmington.

Railroads Reduce Fares to Big Fair

California's big and interesting state fair to be held at Sacramento, September 2-19, will receive the support and co-operation of all the railroads in the state according to joint announcement made by rail officials. All railroads will reduce rates for those going to the fair. Beginning September 2 round trip tickets from all points in the state will be sold for one and one-third of the regular round trip fare. Tickets will have a return limit to September 19.

Exhibit entries made by thirty-five counties indicate the coming fair to be the largest held in the history of the state. Prizes and premiums offered this year total $111,000 and are attractive displays from every field of activity. Competition in the night horse show will have entries from world famous paddocks of England, Canada and eastern United States. The program of entertainment includes music, vaudeville, diving, horses and an excellent program of harness and running races. The historic pioneer locomotive, C. P. Huntington, the first locomotive to be brought around the Horn to the Golden Gate and placed in operation when the last spike was driven at the completion of the Overland Route will be placed on exhibition by the Southern Pacific.

Methodists Ready for Annual Picnic

The First Methodist Church of Torrance will hold its annual picnic on the church grounds and in the park on August 27. It was decided to hold the picnic at home so that a larger number could attend. Miss Mowry, general chairman of the church picnic, has planned a day which will give enjoyment to both children and adults. The little children will come at 3 p. m., when a program of games and musicals will be provided for them; the older children at 4 p. m., and the adults and young people at 5 p. m. A picnic supper will be served at 6 p. m., each family bringing a basket supper. Ice cream and coffee will be served by the church school. Tables will be set on the church grounds. The pastor, Rev. Fose, is in charge of the games and program and promises an enjoyable time. He has arranged an interesting set of prizes. Prizes will be given to the mother with the youngest daughter present; father with the youngest son present, mother with the largest number of daughters present; father with the largest number of sons present; girl with the youngest grandmother present, and boy with the fattest father.

At 7 p. m. a short but interesting program will be given in the church. Wm. Holmes Dies From Burns Rec'd at Union Plant William J. L. Holmes, 36, an engineer with the Union Oil Company died Sunday from burns received Saturday while at work at the plant on Harbor boulevard. The young man's entire body was practically parboiled when he fell in a condenser tank. His home is at 702 West 34th street, Los Angeles. Mr. Holmes owned property in Narbonne Water Co. No. 5 territory, and held up an election for directors of the company several months ago when he asserted that a new territory had been discovered by himself was fraudulent.

Rev. J. Whitfield Green is spending a month with his daughter at Fullerton, Washington. Peter Johnson of 2121 Carson street has recovered from the effects of an operation performed recently for the removal of a tumor from his shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Faxman and family left Sunday on a two weeks auto trip to Washington, and will visit various points of interest en route.
